THE CLASS OF 82

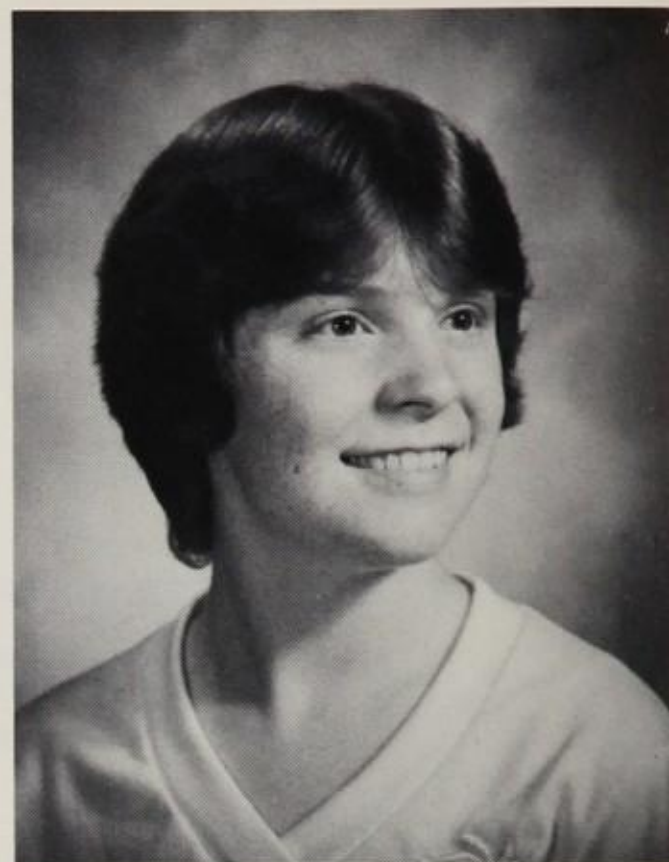

... the future is ours.

Patricia Abrahamsen

You talk to me and I hear your heart. For as long as we love, we will never part. You're so tender, so sweet, so loving, so dear, The love in your heart is all I can hear. So don't go away Listen to my heart and hear what I say.

Alice Archambault

The greatest test of courage on earth is to bear defeat without losing heart.

Helen (Holly) Arnold

Happiness is a rainbow in your heart.

Melody Becker

It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice.

Laurie Brandow

I wish you may, I wish we might, I wish

Life is not complete until you find love,
the kind of love I've found with him.

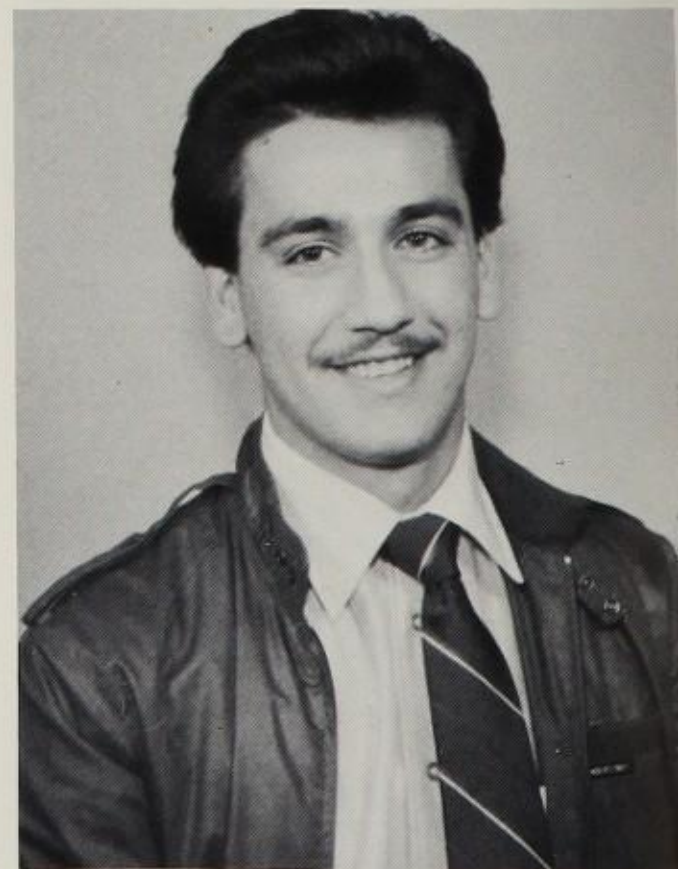

John A. Conarpe

"Look not mournfully into the Past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the Present. It is thine. Go forth and meet the shadowy Future, without fear, and with a manly heart."

Dominick Corrado

"Because we only walk it once, it is important that we walk it with some purpose which we can call our own."

Jacqueline M. Corratti

To accomplish all that is possible,
We must attempt the impossible.
To be as much as we can be.
We must dream of being more.

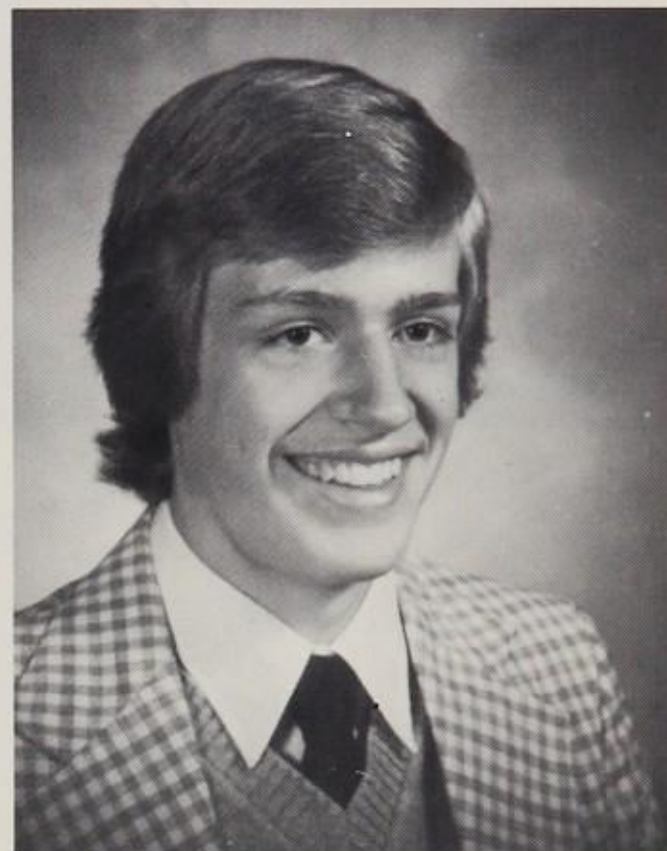

Jeanne Cozzocrea

Happiness is something that is never far away.
It's as close as the things we do and say —
So start out today with a smile on your face
And make this old world a happier place.

Kevin Cross

Life's troubles should make a man better, not bitter.

Teresa Lynne Cutler

Divine love is a sacred flower which in its early bud is happiness and in its full bloom is heaven.

Elizabeth B. Daley

May you always know the truth and see the light surrounding you.

Gina Crowe

Once you find what you want in life and what you're sure you love, don't let anything come between that love and yourself. Love is something you should protect and cherish forever.

Andrea S. Daly

Many is the word

Guessing 'bout a thing
you really ought to know . . .
I really ought to know.

Cynthia O. DeBlasio

Life is a maze,
and just as I thought
I had reached the end.
I realized I was back at the beginning again.

Wayne W. Darling

Friendship often ends in love; but love in friendship, never.

Jill A. Darling

You may say I'm a dreamer,
But I'm not the only one.
I hope someday you'll join us,
And the world will be as one.

Sheila Dedrick

We must reach out our hand if it is to touch another's heart.

GERALYNN DEMAREST

Remember the memories of the yester years as you leave your private mark in time between the past and future, and as your own farewell to yesterday and your welcome to tomorrow.

BENTON G. DESCHAINED

Though I am young, and cannot tell either what death or love is well yet, I have heard they both bear darts, and both do aim at human hearts.

VIRGINIA COLLEEN DONEY

Aim for a star! Look up and away,
And follow its beckoning beam.
Make each Tomorrow a better Today
And don't be afraid to dream.

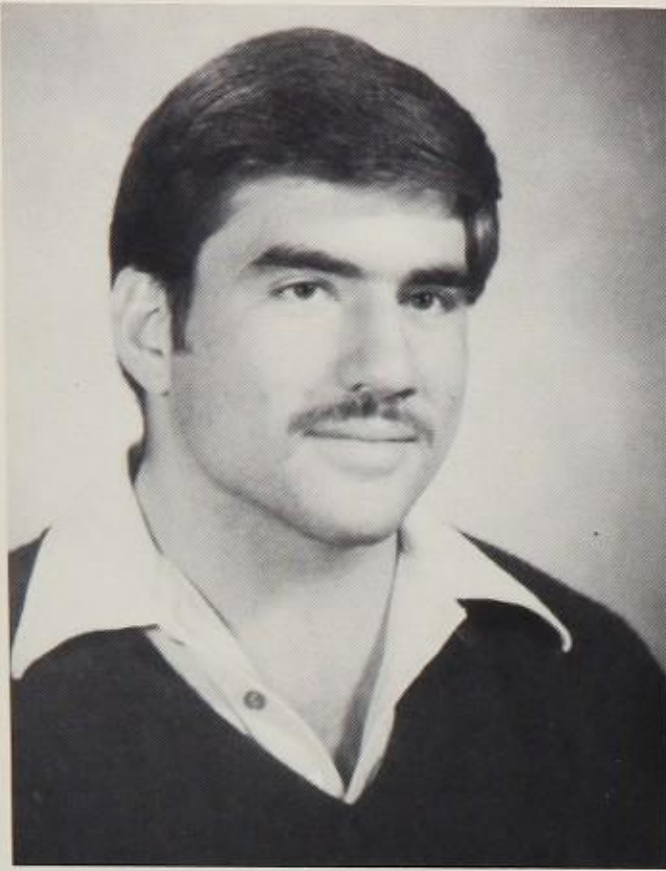

DARLENE "DEE DEE" DEYO

COLLEEN MARIE ERCEG

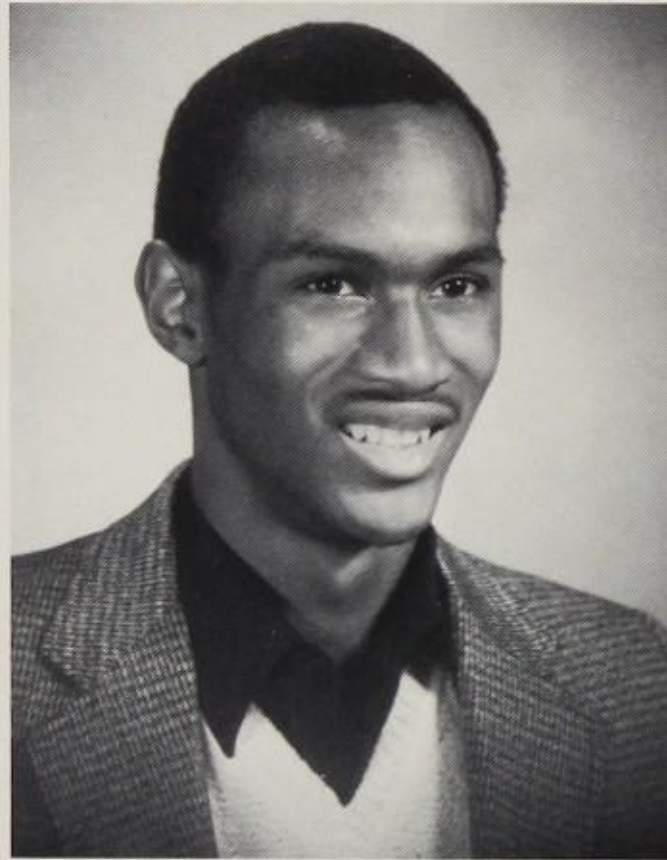

There's a miracle called "Friendship" that dwells within the heart. You don't know how it happens or when it gets it's start . . . But the happiness it brings you always gives a special lift, and you realize that "Friendship" is God's most precious gift.

All because Christ has set me free.

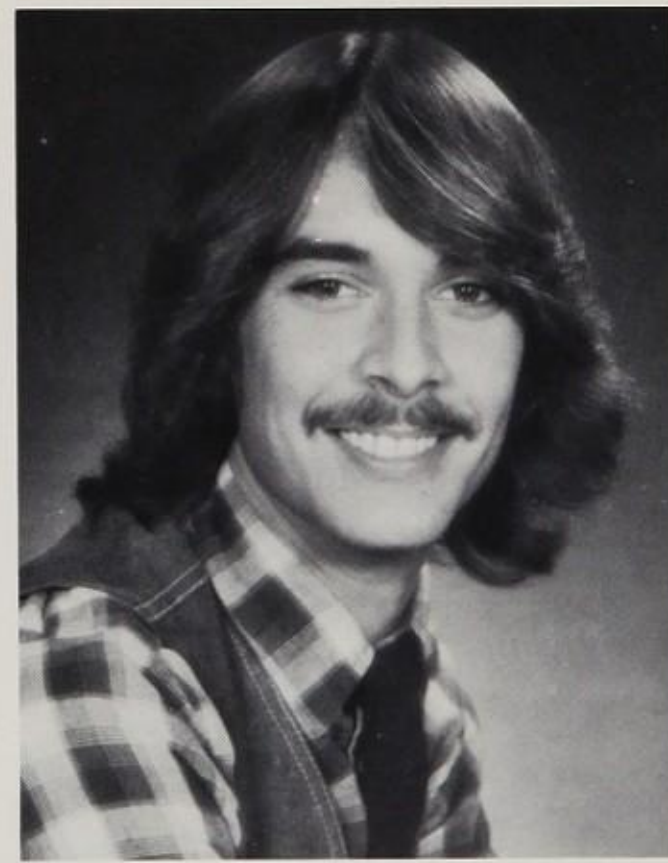

Jane Greenhalgh

It's not so much the few great moments, but the great many simple pleasures that bring true happiness in life.

Manny Greco

You don't get something for nothing
You can't have freedom for free
You won't get wise with the sleep still in your eyes —
No matter what your dream might be.

David Guilzon

Live life to the fullest with a high on life and the feeling of love.

Mark Hafner

To do what you can as well as you can is a mighty good plan for most any man.

How ya gonna come?

Elizabeth Jansen

All men dream: But not equally. Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their minds wake in the day to find it was all in vanity: But the dreamers of the day are dangerous men, for they act their dream with open

 No one knows.
 Maybe it was lost when the perpetual music became so loud that no one can hear you say:
 "I CARE"
 What is the moon's mass? . . .
 Love? . . .

who knows? . . .
 Maybe everyone forgot when they found a pill to make them love anyone . . .
 Young, old, man, woman . . .
 — None of that matters,
 they all have mouths . . .

Empty alley ways, smelling of garbage,
 vomit, urine,
 who can tell what all . . . maybe someone who ran out of money, or had too much?
 Walking down staircases bombarding
 one with plaster, smells familiar enough . . .
 a distant scent of sunrise with the smell of eggs.

Mr. Capobianco,

Words alone cannot express our gratitude for the time and effort you have so unselfishly given us. In years to come while leafing through the 1982 Yearbook, the memories of your support and guidance will again wash over us. They will bring a smile to our face and a tear to our eye as we review "The Good 'ole Days." The part of yourself you shared with us will live forever. Your enthusiasm was our inspiration. Many thanks . . .

OUR CLASS ADVISOR

Miss Paula Liermann.

Miss Liermann,

We could fill this page with our words of gratitude, yet somehow it would not express our feelings for you. The time and effort you have so unselfishly given to us has shaped our lives. You guided us through three hectic years, and never gave up on us!! Your undying energy and enthusiasm was at times our only support.

At long last we've made it to the end of those years and look with anticipation to the future, yet a part of us will always be here with you. The fond memories of the times we've shared will long be remembered. We leave you with our most sincere thanks and best wishes. We'll miss you . . .
